Requirements

- Device equipped with a security-lock slot
- Secure object that you can attach the cable to
- Default Combination = 0-0-0-0

System requirements are subject to change. For the latest requirements, please visit www.StarTech.com/LTLOCK.

Setting a New Combination

The factory preset lock combination is 0-0-0-0. For increased security, you should change the combination to a more secure series of numbers.

1. Align the numbers on the Dial with the Guide Line using the default combination 0-0-0-0.

2. Push the cable in towards the lock and hold it in place. (Figure 1)

3. Turn the dials on the lock to the new combination that you want to set. (Figure 2)

4. Release the cable.

5. For added security, turn the dials so that the combination isn't displayed in the combination display.

    Tip! Write down the combination and keep it in a safe place.

Resetting the Combination

1. Align the numbers on the Dial with the Guide Line using the current combination.

2. Push the cable in towards the lock and hold it in place.

3. Turn the dials on the lock to the new combination that you want to set.

4. Release the cable.

⚠ Caution: Be careful when handling the cable, as it is easy to accidently push the cable towards the lock, changing the current combination.

Attach the Lock to a Laptop

1. Place the looped end of the cable around the secure object that you're attaching the cable to, and pull the lock through the loop. (Figure 3)

2. Turn the dials on the lock until the combination is displayed in the combination display.

   Note: The factory preset lock combination is 0-0-0-0. You should change the combination to a more secure series of numbers. For more information, see the "Set the lock combination" section.

3. Slide the button on the lock in the direction of the arrow on the button and hold the button in place.

4. Insert the T-shaped projection into the security-lock slot on your laptop, rotate the lock 90°, and release the button. (Figure 4)

5. Turn the dials on the lock so that the combination isn't displayed in the combination display.
