

The “Go-To” Packaging Option

- Ideal for all types of packaging industries
- Creates great shelf presence
- Resealable zip lock with tear notch for easy opening
- Variety of colors and sizes

Stand up pouches have become the ideal flexible packaging medium for both large and small businesses alike. Stand up pouches elegantly maximize shelf space over traditional packaging such as boxes and cartons and since the pouches are shipped flat before filling, they also minimize costs of freight and warehousing. Stand up pouches are best suited for packing dry goods such as cookies, nuts, candies, etc.
